

International Conference

Geographies of Knowledge and Imagination

Freiburg Institute for Advanced Studies (FRIAS)
Albertstr. 19
D-79104 Freiburg

Organized by Joachim Grage (Freiburg) and Thomas Mohnike (Strasbourg)

in Cooperation with University of Strasbourg Institute for Advanced Studies (USIAS)

Thursday, 11/06/15

9h00 Welcome

9h30 Lars Erik Zeige (Berlin):
Northern Europe in Linguistic Maps

10h30 coffee

11h Alderik Blom (Oxford):
Rasmus Rask in St Petersburg

12h Kim Simonsen (Groningen):
Paper Monuments of the North. The Royal Society of Northern Antiquaries and Carl Christian Rafn's letters

13h lunch (FRIAS)

14h30 Jürg Glauser (Basel/Zürich):
From Iceland to Thule. Andreas Heusler's Journeys to Iceland and the Construction of Nordic 'Altertumskunde'

15h30 coffee

16h Laura Muller-Thoma (Strasbourg): Tolkien the Philologuer

17h Thomas Mohnike (Strasbourg):
Armchair Traveling in Philological Research: Some Thoughts on the Imaginative
Geographies of 19th Century Comparative Philology as Narrative Arguments

dinner

Friday, 12/06/15

9h Michael Rießler (Freiburg):
Knowledge and Imagination in Human Zoo Parks: Saami Studies carried out during Ethnological Expositions in Central Europe

10h coffee

- 10h30 Lis Møller (Aarhus):
“...und doch hat die Sonne Homers auch über diese Eisberge ihren Glanz”.
Mediations of Danish medieval ballads in Wilhelm Carl Grimm’s Altdänische Heldenlieder
- 11h30 Britta Irslinger (Freiburg):
Brave Heroes and Vicious Goddesses: Philological Research and National Identity in Ireland between 1800–1950
- 12h30 lunch (Paradies)
- 14h30 Clarence Glad (Reykjavík):
Anchoring the North. The Geography of North and South in the Construction of Icelandic National Literature
- 15h30 Joachim Grage (Freiburg):
“The Emerging Discipline of the Future”. The North in 19th Century Comparative Literature
- 16h30 coffee
- 17h Goodbye